TEMPE.

Miss Lydia Chase of Pasadena, Cal., arrived in Tempe yesterday morning, where she will spend several weeks at the home of her uncle, P. A. Hough.

The board of supervisors Thursday appointed Harry Bernard of East Tempe as justice of the peace of Tempe precinct. Mr. Bernard is a well educated man and well qualified for that position.

James McNeil left for Globe Saturday in response to a telegram calling him to the bedside of his brother, Will McNeil, who is dangerously ill with pneumonia in that place.

Dr. DeVore and wife, Mr. Colwell and wife, Miss Edith Colwell, Jack Colwell and Henry Schmidt, leave this morning for the Mogollon mountains. They will camp near Payson the rest of the summer.

Carl Hayden is having his country home fixed up for near future occupation, and Painter H. V. Parker is painting and papering the interior of the house. The family expects to move out in a few weeks.

W. S. Johnston, manager of the Ryder lumber yard, is building more sheds for the increase of stock. Business in Tempe at present is very good for this time of the year.

The watermelon patch of J. H. Cummings across the river and east of the north end of the bridge is one of the finest melon patches in the valley. The soil is near the water in the river and is largely sub-irrigated. His watermelons are just beginning to be marketed and with the exception of those brought in by J. V. Spainhower, are the finest in size and flavor marketed in Tempe this year.

Professor Forbes and his assistants have been working steadily the past few days setting out the date palms lately received. There are 450 trees imported from Africa and when placed in the ground will have cost $125 for each palm. They were put on the government experimental tract lately donated by John Jungermann about three or four miles south of Tempe. The soil at the place contains more alkali than any soil of which anything is known in this valley.

The two little quail hatched from eggs on the organ at the home of Caleb Perron, of which there has been a great deal of interest and comment, died at the home of "Frenchy" Saturday morning. A unique and suitable burial.

relating to manufactures and trade generally will come in for consideration. Prominent among those who have promised to address the gathering are Governor Thomas of Colorado, Benjamin F. Clayton of Ohio, H. J. Rodding, secretary of agriculture of Georgia; Booker T. Washington of Alabama; Professor Elwood Mead of Wyoming; J. B. Kilborn of Tennessee; G. M. Whitaker of Massachusetts; A. J. Lockridge of Indiana, F. D. Coburn, secretary of agriculture of Kansas, and Baron Herman, agricultural attaché of the German legation at Washington.

In his earlier Indian days Kipling was once most amusingly told. At that time he was devoid of companionship, but delighted mostly when in company that the chief part of the conversation should be his. While living at rather a solitary station, he had invited two Indian civilians, both old Winchester boys, to spend the week with him, and promised himself a fine spell of "man-talk." The two, coming from far distant parts of the country, arrived at Kipling's door at the same minute. The recognition was mutual. Said one Wykehamist to the other: "Hallo! Weren't you in 's house?" "Yes, and you were in 's."

Then, after hurriedly greeting their host, the two settled down and talked school shop without intermission for the three days. Kipling hadn't even a "look in."—New York Commercial.
